

The interpreter pool is just too small for a required time of answer. I would like to see grants given to interpreter training programs and to the state to fund curriculum for VRS interpreting, thereby, hopefully attracting and encouraging new interpreters into the field.